

$5 $20 $25

All You Pay for Your Tailored Suit or Overcoat

We mean just exactly what those headlines say. You come here expecting to get a smart tailored suit faultless in every particular AND YOU GET IT. The most distinctive in the new fall weaves cut and perfectly fitted to your measurements, superbly lined with the best of material at prices within reach of all.

Trousers $5.00, $6.50, $7.50

CORRECT CLOTHING
EL PASO
Made Complete in El Paso
We Do Cleaning, Pressing and Repairing.
WORK CALLED FOR AND DELIVERED.
Cor. Myrtle and Stanton. Phone 6176. Wm. Rosing, Propr.

EAT CABBAGE, FISH
SAUSAGE, NEW BREAD

No Indigestion, Gas, Sourness or Upset
Stomach if you'll take "Pape's Diapiesin"—Try This!

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Diapiesin, get this down: "Pape's Diapiesin" digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapiesin" is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapiesin" comes in contact with the stomach—digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.—Advertisement.

DID CHILD WAKE UP CROSS OR FEVERISH?

Look Mother! If tongue is coated give "California Syrup of Figs" to clean the bowels.

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given. Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the waste, cold bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. "Children love this harmless, delicious 'fruit-laxative,' and it never fails to effect a good 'inside' cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Counterfeits are being sold here. Don't be fooled!—Advertisement.

Oradoff Buys Spineless Cactus.
Mrs. E. V. Pickrell has sold to Seth Oradoff 200 cactus plants for use on his ranch at Belen, Texas.

KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES DISAPPEAR

Chronic Sufferers Find Relief After
Few Days of Croxone.

If you are bothered with backache or rheumatism, have disagreeable, annoying bladder or urinary disorders to contend with—or suffer with any other of the many miseries that come from weak kidneys, here is a guaranteed remedy you can depend upon.

It is a positive fact that Croxone promptly overcomes such diseases. It soaks right in and cleans out the stopped up kidneys and makes them filter and sift out the poisonous waste matter from the blood. It neutralizes and dissolves the uric acid that lodges in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatism; soothes and heals the delicate linings of the bladder.

More than a few doses of Croxone are seldom required to relieve even the obstinate, long standing cases. You will find Croxone entirely different from all other remedies. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it without results. An original package costs but a trifle, and your druggist is authorized to return the purchase price if Croxone fails to give the desired results the very first time.—Advertisement.

LEVY GROCERY COMPANY
UNDERSELL ALL OTHERS
PHONES 505-3098. 204-206 E. OVERLAND ST.

SPECIALS
Levy's Blend Coffee, per lb. 20c
Mixed Tea, per lb. 35c
3 cans Corn 25c
Durham Guaranteed Speckled Kidney Beans, 5 lbs. 25c
New Sauerkraut, per lb. 5c
Tuncumari Butter, per lb. 35c
Eggs, per doz. 40c

HAZ HAMPEER
ELECTROWORK

(Continued from page one.)

There is no speech making, no parades, only a few posters announcing several candidates.

Senor Gamboa looks for special support from Jalisco, Guanajuato, Queretaro and other states.

Managers of the campaign of Manuel Calero, the Liberal candidate, assert that much work has been done for him in Veracruz, Oaxaca and Yucatan.

Diaz Adherents Hampered.
The support of the Diaz adherents is reported to have been hampered by reason of the uncertainty as to the course the candidates will pursue. His followers are depending for strength on the efforts of the clubs of which they claim some thousands of members organized, chiefly throughout Veracruz, Oaxaca, Guerrero and the southern states.

Report current in the capital that Gen. Huerta and Gen. Blanquet, the war minister, have been announced as candidates in the state of Chihuahua with their consent, was denied in behalf of Gen. Huerta by senor Moreno, the foreign minister.

FELIX DIAZ MAY QUIT RACE FOR PRESIDENCY

Veracruz Officials Expect Eleventh Hour Announcement of Gen. Huerta.

Veracruz, Mex., Oct. 20.—Jose Luis Requena, candidate for vice president on the Diaz ticket, is expected to welcome Gen. Felix Diaz, who is due to arrive Tuesday.

Local officials are authority for the statement that the eleventh hour candidacy of Gen. Huerta and Gen. Blanquet will openly be announced on Tuesday.

Senor Requena said he felt that the elections would be free, but that his party had small hopes of success, as no candidate could hope to control enough votes to insure his election.

Senor Requena also said that if Gen. Huerta and Gen. Blanquet insisted on presenting themselves for election, Gen. Diaz and he himself would retire.

OROZCO NEXT CHIHUAHUA GOVERNOR

Candidacy of Former Rebel Leader Is Announced and So On in Running Against Him, Say Juarez Advises.

Gen. Pascual Orozco is a candidate for the governorship of Chihuahua, and no opponent to him has been announced in the election of next Sunday, according to Juarez army officers. Orozco commands the volunteer forces in the second military zone, which includes the state of Chihuahua.

No official announcement of the candidates for senator and deputy from Chihuahua have reached Juarez military officials, but it is believed that, however, that names of the candidates will be announced this week by Gen. Merced, military governor of the state.

That Huerta will be a candidate for the presidency is a rumor that has gained more credence in Chihuahua, transmitting a copy of a telegraphic instruction of the department of state to the American ambassador in London, August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

Grand Masquerade Carnival
ON Hallowe'en
Night
OCT. 31

THE CLASSY AUDITORIUM RINK
Open Every Afternoon and Evening
CORNER MILLS AND KANSAS

Grand Prizes to be awarded ladies and gentlemen in the best comic and classic make-up.

HENRY LANE WILSON SAYS PRESIDENT
EVIDENTLY HAD BEEN BADLY ABUSED

In Letter of Resignation, Ambassador to Mexico Says He Will Not Be Made a Victim of Hasty and Unmerited Rebuke Without Protest; the Removal Might Have Been in Kindlier Spirit.

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 20.—The letter to secretary of state Bryan, in which Henry Lane Wilson tendered his resignation as American ambassador to Mexico, was made public here by Mr. Wilson. The letter was written in Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 28. In part, Mr. Wilson wrote:

"I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note of August 14, transmitting a copy of a telegraphic instruction of the department of state to the American ambassador in London, August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was 'the congressional expression of the American ambassador.'"

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

It seemed to me that this was the first of our history to be published in the press, and I accordingly gave to the press the interview referred to.

"There is," he writes, "a just limit to patient silence and I shall not permit myself to be made the victim of a hasty and unmerited rebuke without placing on record with you my earnest and solemn protest."

Mr. Wilson then reviews the circumstances leading up to the instructions to the ambassador in London. A London dispatch was published in this country August 11, stating that one of the factors demanding British recognition of the Mexican provisional government was "the congressional expression of the American ambassador."

HATS
Cleaned,
Blocked,
Retrimmed

Send Us Your Old Hats

Don't discard last Fall's hat just because it is soiled or out of shape—send it to us and we'll return it to you just like new.

We have all the latest appliances and expert hatters. If we undertake your work we guarantee it.

Our Wagons Are Everywhere

The same careful service is maintained in our cleaning department that has always characterized our laundry.

El Paso Laundry
Phones 470-471.
Cleaning Department Phone 6379.

We take the risk of its being abused: we ask the grocer to return a dissatisfied customer's money if she doesn't like Schilling's Best; let her keep the goods; and sell her again.

So long as he thinks she is honest, he is to hand-over the money. We trust him to do for us as he'd do for himself if he were we and himself too.

Schilling's Best was your first definition of moneyback.

A Schilling & Company San Francisco

LINCOLN COUNTY MEN TAKE PRIZES AT FAIR

Carrizozo, N. M., Oct. 20.—The Lincoln county exhibits sent to the State fair at Albuquerque by the Carrizozo Commercial club were each awarded a prize. The exhibits consisted of five varieties of apples and prizes were awarded as follows: Greening, first prize, grown by Geo. Geo. Bellflowers, first prize, grown by Rinaldo Duran; best general fruits, third, W. L. Gumm; largest and heaviest, first prize, W. L. Gumm.

The results of the little exhibit sent up are very encouraging.

W. H. Smith, of Canon City, Colo., M. O. Bliven and J. F. Hall, of Amarillo, Texas, and Lon Jenkins, of El Paso, are in Carrizozo buying and shipping cattle to eastern markets.

Orsa S. Stearns and Mrs. Pearl Pogue were united in marriage at the home of Rex Herbert Haywood, pastor of the Carrizozo Baptist church. Only a few friends of the contracting parties were present. The couple are among Carrizozo's well known young people. The couple will reside in Carrizozo.

Sheriff Porfirio, with three guards, left with three prisoners sentenced to terms in the state penitentiary at Santa Fe, they also took Dan Sheffield, charged with murder by the recent grand jury, for safe keeping until his next spring. The prisoners taken were Felipe Chavez, for stealing a horse, three to four years and a fine of $500 and cost; Harry Roy, who pleaded guilty to raising a check from $12 to $112, from one year to 15 months; and Rafael Marquez, assault while being armed, two charges, from one to two years.

Senator Joe T. Robinson, of Arkansas, and congressman T. A. Carter, of Oklahoma, passed through Carrizozo on their way to the state capital at Santa Fe. They were accompanied by their families. The group included congressmen Stephens, two other members of the House, and a number of Indian affairs, made a trip of inspection to the Indian reservation at Mesquite Lake.

Neah Buck and Miss Viola Aveni were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, the Rudinos, in the northeastern part of this county. The bride is a daughter of L. A. Aveni. The groom is a business man of Artesia, where they will make their home.

Mrs. and Mrs. S. H. Nickles are the parents of a baby boy.

Attorney Geo. B. Barles has returned from New York.

SUFFRAGETS VISIT
LONDON CHURCHES

(Continued from previous page.)

Their English sisters and to protest against the action of the authorities at New York in preventing Mrs. Pankhurst from landing.

Similar scenes occurred at Birmingham churches. No attempt was made to interfere with the suffragets, who, after they had finished their litany, quietly walked out.

CLASSIFIED PAGES CLOSE AT 1:30.
To insure insertion in The Herald the same day classified copy should be in the office by 12:50 p.m. The last classified page closes at 1:30 p.m.

Bilious?
One of Ayer's Pills at bedtime—just one. Acts on the liver. Gently laxative. Sugar-coated. All vegetable.
Sold for 60 years.
Ask Your Doctor.

FREE
A "Chamois" Hat with each Suit, Overcoat or Cravenette bought from us this month.

THE $15 CLOTHES SHOP
HARRIS KRUPP, Prop.
107 San Antonio St.